LOCAL PILGRIMS IN MANY LANDS

"WOULD REQUIRE TOUR OF WORLD TO LOCATE THEM ALL."

DENISON PARTY IN JAPAN

The "Mongolia" on Which They Sailed June 30, Was Scheduled to Reach Yokohama Yesterday.

If Janesville should send a tracer after all of its one-time residents who are temporarily or permanently far from home this summer, he would have to traverse a goodly portion of both the civilized and non-civilized world before the "Well done!" benediction could be pronounced. Some where along the west coast of South America he would have to overlook the auxiliary cruiser, "Buffalo," in command of Frank M. Postwick, which passed through the Golden Gate on June 7, bound for Panama and the turbulent republics to the southward. His next commission perhaps, would be to run down the armored cruiser "Maryland" of the first squadron, first division of the Pacific fleet and locate Midshipman Carl M. Yates who graduated from the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis last June.

THE REV. ROBERT C. DENISON

with Brother Joseph Dutton who became the guiding spirit there after the death of Father Denison in 1886, and who has not yet contracted the disease, would enable our tracer to throw some interesting sidelights on a life consecrated to heroic self-sacrifice and devotion. After Hawaii, the next stop might be at the Philippines where John Denison, as secretary to the Governor General, in helping, presumably, to persuade barbarous and ungrateful people that the yoke of civilization is only a daisy chain, when one gets used to it.

Japan And China. Thence the tracer's trail leads to Japan. Though he has covered the distance between points with astounding rapidity, he arrives too late to overtake a particular quartet of pilgrims who have been faring that way, and too early to receive welcome from Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Hubbard who are soon to resume the Y. M. C. A. extension work in the vicinity of Tokyo. The pilgrims' recent visit, however, is still a live topic of conversation in all of the pagodas, palaces, and temples and the Buddhists show men smothering about the shrines of Buddha do not head.

tate to volunteer the information that the Janesville exploring party has crossed the Yellow Sea for a few weeks' junket among the Chinese junkies.

Europe. Moving westward across Asia, there are no stops for the winged-foot messenger until he reaches Australia. In Vienna, perhaps, or in Munich or Dresden or Berlin, he finds Dr. and Mrs. T. O. Sutherland, Miss Sarah Sutherland, and Miss Lady Martinez strolling through labyrinthine art galleries or listening to superb music in the cool summer gardens dedicated, it would seem, to the Hofburg and the Spathenbrunn or some of their kindred—all of the Munchener family. The Sutherlands have recently come to the continent after a tour of Ireland and the Scottish highlands and furnish the clue which leads to the discovery of Mr. and Mrs. William Bladen who have also crossed the Channel, after interesting visits in London and the neighboring cities of Richmond, Harry B. North, son of Mrs. B. P. Crossman and assistant professor of pharmacy at the University of Wisconsin, is in Paris and will be welcomed there, late in August, to Miss Harriet Clarke, former teacher of elocution and elocution in the Madison high school. Arthur H. Wendell is in Chicago in advance of the "Lionel" (Lionel) theatrical production, having departed from Janesville on the 17th of July.

ROYCROFT PHILOSOPHY

BY FRANK ELBERTUS

Written in a sincere and kindly desire to help the young who do not know and the older ones who sometimes forget

CHARLES LAMB said that when he reached his office fifteen minutes late he always went away half an hour earlier so to make the matter right. This was a joke. The chronic late is always marked on the time-book for a lay-off when times get "scarce." Your interests are the interests of the house, and theirs are yours—BE ON TIME.

As to the habit of getting everything packed and ready for a quick start when the bell rings, this does not mean for you a raise. Work as if you owned the place—and perhaps you may.

Young men who loiter around the entrance to the store or factory, and smoke, gossip, chew and spit, would do well to eliminate it. Be peculiar, and when you come to your work go to work, even if it be five minutes before time. This habit marks the difference between the youth who is going to be foreman and the others who have no luck.

Accuracy in business is a virtue beyond esteem.

All the knowledge and effort exerted in a business transaction may be overbalanced by an error in figures, an omitted word or by indistinct writing. Pull yourself, together when these finishing touches are to be made, and on your life, get them clear and correct.

Courteous manners in little things are an asset worth acquiring. You rise when a customer approaches, you offer a chair, you step aside and let the Store's guest pass first into the elevator: these are little things, but they make your work and yourself finer.

If you are going to be absent, tell your foreman so and get his approval. If you are unavoidably detained from work, send word why.

To give visitors or give short, sharp, slipshod answers, even to stupid or impudent people, is a great mistake. Meet rudeness by unfailing patience and politeness and see how much better you feel.

MALCOLM JEFFRIS

lary robe-traveler ends his itinerary with a call upon M. A. Heath, superintendent of equipment of the Panama railroad, and wife, at their home not far from Colon. He will reach Janesville just about the time Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, her son Allen P. and Stowe, and daughter, Miss Julia Lovejoy, are starting on their western trip which is to include a cruise of the inland passage and a visit at Alaska and some of the other parts of Alaska—that is, about the first of August.

Jeffris Boys in the Orient. Of all the vacation trips from this point, the most notable is the one which carries Rev. Robert C. Denison, pastor of the First Congregational church, and the three Jeffris boys, to Japan and China. They sailed from San Francisco on the "Mongolia" June 27, expected to reach Honolulu July 7 and enjoy a thirty-six hour stopover there; and were to land in Yokohama the last of this week. At Tokyo they will be met by Katsuyuki, a member of the nobility, who was a classmate of Mr. Denison at Amherst. After journeying by rail to Kobe, they will embark upon a voyage through the inland sea. Landing at Fusan, on the Korean coast, they will cross over to Seoul and from thence to Port Arthur and Tientsin. Letters of introduction from an official of the Pullman Car company to his son who is in charge of the construction of cars at Port Arthur and to the official concerned in the matter of smoothing the way for them at these points of interest.

In China they hope to find Arthur Smith, another friend of the Rev. Mr. Denison, who has been engaged in missionary work for thirty-five years and who is an authority on the life of the people of the empire, having written several books on the subject, notably "A Yellow Kingdom," and "Chinese Characteristics." Mr. Smith is a graduate of Beloit college and lived with Mr. Denison's family a decade ago. With him as guide the party expects to penetrate to the interior of China, observing the picturesque life along the great canal which leads to Peking, Chungking.

On the way back from China they will visit Siam, Korea, and other Japanese cities. The voyage home will be begun early in September.

A Band of Collegians.

The boys are sons of three of the Jeffris brothers. Malcolm, son of M. G. Jeffris, the well known attorney, is 21 years of age, a Junior at Brown university, and a member of the Phi Epsilon fraternity; Kenneth, son of President W. S. Jeffris of the Merchants and Mechanics' Savings bank, is 17 years of age, a sophomore at Beloit college; and a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity; Donald Jeffris is a son of Dr. K. Jeffris, who is associated with the Carroll brother, Fred Jeffris, in large leather-goods enterprises in Chicago and is now a student at Phillips academy, the Yale preparatory school, at Andover, Mass. Mr. Denison is a graduate of Amherst and a member of the Chi Psi fraternity. The collegiate character of the expedition is made more pronounced by the fact that the boys, just before leaving Chicago on June 24, became acquainted with a band of Japanese students at Chicago university who were headed for passage to the island kingdom on the same boat with them.

Letters from Honolulu, dated July 6, were received by W. S. Jeffris today.

DOUBLE SOMERBAULT IN AUTO

Ringing Brothers Present Thriller That Paralyzes Public.

There at least has been brought forthunder the canvas of Ringling Brothers' world's greatest show an act which for utter recklessness in the face of danger and for nerve that passes understanding, establishes a new record in thrilling exploits.

La Belle Roche, a young French woman, seated in a heavy automobile, plunges down a steep and slender track, is hurled high in the air by the abrupt termination of the track in an upward curve, leaps a gap of fifty feet during which the machine accomplishes two complete somersaults and alights on a spring platform with dreadful impact.

It is the first time in the history of this sort of circus acrobatics that either a bicycle or an automobile has achieved a double somersault in mid-air. Description of the act defies the powers of English. It is a brief moment of exquisite suspense that pinches the heart and whitens the face; nerves are drawn to the snapping point. The relief of the audience when the act is finished in safety is expressed in shouts of applause, the clapping of hands and waving of handkerchiefs.

The danger of the act is apparent to all beholders. As the car makes its frightful leap into space a tragedy seems inevitable. The first, then, is made, but this only intensifies the suspense. For the fraction of a second the automobile apparently pauses in the air as if summing up all its energy for the final revolution. This for the audience is the critical moment, and many avert their eyes, as death to the young woman seems certain. As correctly as a bird swims its flight the second somersault is turned and with a crash the heavy car hits the runway and exhausts its force on the track.

It is truly a wonderful performance that Ringling Brothers are this year offering their patrons. The circus is supreme in size and strength and, having gathered together the best talent of the world's arenas, with careful regard for what is new and novel, it is not strange that the circus is attracting larger crowds this season and giving more satisfaction than has any other circus in the history of the business.

MARZLUFF COMPANY TO EXHIBIT SHOES

Will Be Exhibitors at the Shoe Exposition in the Coliseum in Chicago.

With some of the manufacturers around town business is somewhat dull, but with others it is beginning to pick up again and things are looking better.

The F. M. Marzluff company are making up their sample list of their fall and spring line of goods. Their representatives, Irving M. Fell, of Cincinnati, L. H. Birch of New York, P. J. Rice of Milwaukee, Geo. Kollogg of Elkhart and Frank Nicholson of this city expect to start out about the twentieth of August. The Marzluff company will exhibit their shoes in Chicago at the Coliseum building at the National Shoe and Leather exhibit which takes place there August 26 to September 2.

The Strickler Day Tool company are receiving orders right along for hay tools and expect to for some time yet. The J. P. Cullen company are working on the window frames for the Postwick building at the playing mill. Business at the New Doty Works is quiet but they have enough orders to keep their force working all the time.

The Rock River Machine company have enough orders to keep them running.

At the Haworth Water company's bottling works things are rather quiet although they are shipping out some of their goods.

The Western Shoe company will resume operations next Monday. Mr. Leely, the new superintendent, has arrived to take charge of the factory when it starts up again.

Nott Bros., paper box manufacturers, report the usual amount of business which is enough to keep them running all the time.

The Wisconsin Carriage company have been shut down for a few days to take inventory but will resume work Monday morning.

The Janesville Barb Wire company have started up their wire and nail machines, but are not running very heavily on them as yet, but expect to soon.

George Nicholson was so badly bitten by his pet Angora cat yesterday that it was necessary to summon Dr. James Mills to dress the injuries. He was detaching the feline in his arms, apparently against his will, when the creature turned on him and buried its teeth in his right arm between the wrist and elbow. Mr. Nicholson is a well known railroad man and resides on South Academy street.

NELSON PAID $25 FINE AND COSTS

Jury Convicted Him of Assault After Four Minutes' Conference Late Yesterday Afternoon.

Four minutes of deliberation sufficed the jury trying the assault and battery case against Laverne Nelson in municipal court yesterday afternoon and they returned a verdict of "guilty." Judge Field imposed a fine of $10 and costs, amounting in all to $25, with the alternative of twenty days in jail, and the fine and costs were paid. Nelson's wife testified on the witness stand that he struck and kicked and otherwise abused her, while the defendant denied everything. They were the only witnesses. The occurrence of last Tuesday evening did not enter in the case.

FINED FOR THEFT OF BINDING TWINE

Edward Boland of the Town of Harmony Was Caught Red-Handed on River Street by Officer Fanning.

On the charge of appropriating a fifty pound sack of binding twine belonging to the White House on River street, Edward Boland, a farm hand from the town of Harmony, was arrested by Officer Fanning at a late hour yesterday afternoon. The patrolman chanced to see Boland hurrying down the street with the bag and after making inquiries along the street and learning that property answering to the description had disappeared from the department store, captured Boland just as he was returning from the river bank, where the missing twine was subsequently located.

In municipal court this morning the accused pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing merchandise valued at $1.50 from the Leonard Underwood Co. "I was drunk but I never did such a thing before when intoxicated and can't understand how I came to do it this time," said Boland to the court. "I had plenty of twine at home and must have taken this just of pure carelessness. If you will be lenient with me, I won't drink any more for a year." Chief Appleby corroborated Boland's inference that he was apt to be irresponsible when drunk. Judge Field levied a fine and costs amounting to $13 with the alternative of 20 days in jail. The prisoner was unable to produce the money but expected friends to come to his aid sometime during the day.

RED SOX TO PLAY THE MILTON TEAM

STOP DRINKING

Orrine Destroys Desire for Drink "How to Swear Off"

It was formerly customary for the habitual drinker to take the pledge regularly, sometimes once a year, and sometimes in every fit of remorse that followed his debauches, and then—Break it.

But now it is gradually dawning on the world that pledges do not stop drunkenness. When a man takes a pledge voluntarily, he expects to keep it. Every man expects to keep his word, and every broken pledge costs the drunkard many a heartache, but he cannot help it. He fights as long as he can, then succumbs to the craving. The nervous system of the habitual drinker is diseased and he must have treatment that will cure his condition.

Orrine is sold under a positive guarantee to cure the drink habit or the money will be refunded. No other treatment for the liquor habit is sold with such a liberal guarantee. Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1 a powder, perfectly tasteless and colorless, which can be given secretly in any food or drink. Orrine No. 2, is in pill form, for those who wish to be cured of the habit, and it should be taken by every one who swears off.

No matter which form of Orrine is used, the guarantee is the same. The price of Orrine is $1.00 per box, mailed in plain sealed wrapper upon receipt of price. Write for free booklet on "How to Cure Drunkenness" (mail in the plain sealed envelope) to The Orrine Co., Washington, D. C. Orrine is sold by Dr. J. C. Hazen's Pharmacy.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott.

Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

July, 1908, 1908.
Samuel learns Saul and the people. I Sam. xlii:15, 15:25.
Golden Text. Only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he hath done for you? I Sam. xlii:21.
Verse 1.—When individuals or the people choose a wrong thing, can it ever be made to work out for their good? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)
Verses 2-5.—What proportion of men in authority, can truthfully claim absolute integrity and cleanness of hands, as Samuel did?
Notwithstanding Samuel's undoubted integrity, what great faults was he guilty of?
Verse 13.—If we have embarked upon a policy that God did not favor, but afterward permitted, what will be God's attitude toward us concerning our present and future success?
If we can compare conduct, or a life policy, as good, better and best, what will be God's attitude toward us, if we adopt that which is lower than the best?
Verse 14.—What reason is there for the opinion that God sometimes does a thing for us, at our strong request, which he knows is not the "best" for us? (Verse 12.)
If one person in a family or partnership, or society, is true to God, and the rest are not, what effect will he have upon the success of the rest, and what sort of a blessing will he get from God?
Nergo 15-17: The hand of God is ways against those who destroy him, and if so, how is it manifested?

Do all who rebel against God, get equal opposition from him? Why or why not?
Is it possible, in any single case, for a man to destroy God and escape injury, or not suffer loss?
Verse 16.—What is the great thing that God does daily before our eyes?
Verse 17.—Does God in these days ever perform his miracles?
Why was it wonderful to have, in that country, rain and thunder at harvest time?
How did Samuel know that God would answer his prayer?

MAY SUE BORDEN CO. FOR DAMAGES

Widow of Chief Engineer of Plant at Hampshire, Ill., May Sue For Husband's Death.

[Janesville and Chicago, Ill.] An action for damages may be instituted against Borden's Condensed Milk company by Mrs. David Tachabold, widow of the chief engineer of the company's plant at Hampshire, Ill., who died from burns received in an explosion. The coroner's jury censured Dr. Brown, a Chicago specialist, who was sent to Elgin, the members of the jury signing a verdict declaring that the examination made by him hastened the patient's death. Tachabold had been left by his physicians who gave instructions that he should not be disturbed because of a weak heart. The Chicago doctor without the knowledge of the regular physician, placed the patient on the dressing table, took off the wrappings and made an examination of the burns. Tachabold died shortly afterward. The explosion occurred while Tachabold was making an inspection of a high pressure water tank which had been cleaned out. He had a lighted candle which came in contact with carbon oxide, similar to freon found in mines. The explosion was heard all over the village and shook the plant as if an earthquake had struck it. The body was brought here for burial, the funeral being held yesterday afternoon. Coroner Hall was called to Brookline yesterday to make inquiry into the circumstances attending the death of William Tilley, aged 21, who was found dead in bed, evidently from the effects of chloroform. He had a sore hand, which was affected from blood poisoning, and it is supposed that in dressing it he got chloroform in place of other medicine. He was a son of Henry Tilley and for two years had been employed by Snyder & Roberts, butchers.

George E. Dixon of Broadhead has announced himself as a candidate for the republican nomination for county clerk at the September primary. J. P. Graham was here from Broadhead and returned yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Clawson, Jr., of Chicago, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Evan South.

Burr Oak, July 18.—Miss Leah Proctor, who has been laid up with a sprained ankle the past two weeks, is doing nicely and expects to return to her home some time next week. Mrs. Leonard Brice is visiting at the old home this week. Miss Maggie Flaherty and niece, Helen, are spending the week at her brother's, Tom Flaherty. Mrs. D. Hopkins called on Burr Oak friends last Wednesday. Mr. Aden Proctor of La Prairie visited his daughter Leah last Tuesday at Hubbard's ranch. ### OUR SATURDAY NIGHT

The appreciable value of a dollar is based on the effort exerted to secure it. Money that comes easy usually goes away. The boy who inherits a fortune seldom appreciates it, and as a rule would be better off without it, for it represents the kind of money which comes without effort, and the recipient is not likely to be an intelligent steward.

Someone has said that life is a lottery and that the man who invests his time and money in business or farming, takes long chances with the odds against him. This is a pessimistic view of life, and only entertained by men who have been unfortunate.

The storm which swept over the southern part of the state, a week ago, destroyed here and there a barn with its contents, and the losses were naturally felt that fate was against them, but the next morning the sun was a bright as ever, while the landscape showed but little evidence of having been disturbed.

The promise of seed-time and harvest is an old time promise, and it applies to more than the realm of agriculture, for history records with unfailing regularity that honest effort, intelligently applied, in any calling, meets with reward.

For the past eight or nine months, the people of this country have been engaged in taking account of stock, a profitable but not always a pleasant task.

A long-continued era of prosperity, covering almost a decade, developed all sorts of extravagance, and incomes, however liberal, were not sufficient to meet demands.

We were possessed with a mania to get rich quick, and "something for nothing" was the popular watch-word. Speculation was rife in the land, and the man who failed to acquire a block of mining stock, or some other bubble which promised much, without the investment of effort, was the exception and not the rule.

The public found us spread out so thin that we couldn't rally, and the only wonder is that wholesale failure was not recorded.

The inventory has brought to the surface and re-established a few facts which as a people we will do well to remember. One of the most important is the value of a dollar and the only true way to estimate it.

The speculative dollar represents the lottery pure and simple, because there is nothing behind it in the way of toil and honest effort. What is true of the dollar is true of everything else that comes without exertion or sacrifice.

More or less prejudice exists against college men, in the business world, and the fact is not always recognized that there are two classes of college graduates: One, the class who never earned a dollar, and who leave school at from 22 to 25 years of age with no conception of the value of money.

Their ability as financiers is the ability to spend, and whatever of sacrifice is represented, is found in the home which economizes to keep the boy in school.

An education which represents but little more than a five-year holiday, is a poor equipment for the rough and tumble existence which awaits every young man when he enters the race of everyday life.

Three of the graduates, in one of our western colleges, own automobiles, while as many more supported a private livery with coachmen.

When this class of young men ride up to the door of the business world, and knock for admission, they feel insulted at an offer of $10 a week, which is more than they are worth.

These boys of course are the exception, but there are many others whose stock of practical knowledge is largely confined to football and athletics.

The self-made man commences to build for himself long before the age of 25, and unless more than a knowledge of textbooks, acquired without sacrifice, enters into the foundation, the structure is a failure.

The Alton railroad recently elected a president who has been in the employ of the company all his life. When a lad of 12 he was water boy for a construction gang. His faithfulness soon won promotion and he was made timekeeper. Then step by step he marched to the front, a thoroughly educated railroad man whose knowledge was all acquired in the great universality of life.

This man represents a large class of self-made men who occupy positions of trust and responsibility, and whose success is due to effort intelligently directed, and to practical knowledge, acquired through sacrifice.

The schools of the land are a blessing to the nation, but their usefulness will be increased many fold if the people ever learn to take as much interest in their children in school, as they devote to other things of much less importance.

The last government census shows that 20,000,000 children and young people of all ages are enrolled in schools, in the schools and colleges.

Of this vast number 355,000, or less than 2 per cent, are found in colleges, universities, and higher institutions of learning. Not every high school in the land adopts an impractical course of study, so that its graduates may enter the university, and this in spite of the fact that 95 per cent of scholars in attendance at the public schools never graduate from a high school course.

Why is this farce permitted? Simply because the parents of the land take so little interest in the schools, that a handful of educators control them, and dictate the policy.

Ninety-five per cent of our children graduate from the grades, and enter the business and industrial world so poorly equipped with any sort of practical knowledge that they are handicapped for life.

The state school for deaf at DeWitt recently announced that a high school department would be added this year, so that graduates from that institution might enter the state university. This in spite of the fact that almost every literary channel is closed to the deaf and dumb.

These boys and girls are physically well developed. What they need above everything else is a well educated hand so that they may enter the industrial world prepared to earn an honest livelihood.

But the big school department will be added because people know little and care less about schools and their management.

The average boy and girl will soon enter the active arena, and become a part of the busy throng struggling for existence. The small percentage from colleges and universities should be taught that textbook knowledge costs more than study, and they should also be made to realize that the value of a dollar is represented in honest effort to acquire it.

Beyond Price
Oshkosh Northwestern: When a man has good neighbors it is better than belonging to a fraternal organization.

Twain's Mine Definition
Tucson (Ariz.) Star: Mark Twain declares "a mine is a hole in the ground owned by a liar." Who sold him the stock?

Handicapped in Yell Game
Madison Democrat: How are the prohibitionists going to maintain an hour and a half yell without something to wet their whistles?

War—There and Here
Green Bay Gazette: The shells continue to fly at Fabriz. Over in this part of the country the mosquitoes are doing pretty well at the same game.

Wausau Record-Tribune: Fifty school ma'ams in Milwaukee are to be married during the summer or fall. With this reputation there ought to be no difficulty in filling their places.

Too Good to Be True
East Chicago Leader: No, that isn't the mold bending over the gas stove, with poorly banded of perspiration sparkling on her fair brow. That's Edythe, the sweet girl graduate, learning how to stoop prunes.

Best of 'Em Won't Take It
Helford News: The vice presidential office continues to be of no account until a president happens to die or be assassinated. Then we all wish a man of strength and power had been chosen.

Guffey's "I Told You So"
St. Louis Globe Democrat: On the morning of November 4 Mr. Guffey will remind the democrat that he called Bryan "the worst President, demagogue, devastating boss, the democratic party has ever known."

Come! Come! Be Frank!
Racine Journal: It is only fair to Senator Stephenson to say if his millions were frittered for the cause of the people two years ago, they are equally as frittered this year. This without prejudice.

How Canada Is Waking Up
Exchange: It seems that the latest Canadian transcontinental Pacific railroad will cost $200,000,000, or $80,000,000 more than the estimate. London bankers of late have advised Canada to slow up in its zeal for new transportation facilities.

"Predicament" Is Good
Milwaukee Sentinel: Some of our so-called "progressives" complain that Mr. Stephenson is "out of touch" with former associates. Looka so. In fact, "Uncle Isaac" has grown restless under the "touching" process—Appleton Post. Nevertheless the touchers will develop into plagues and even knock-downs before "Uncle Ike" gets out of his present senatorial predicament.

McGovern Busy with Statistics
Milwaukee News: As a candidate for senator, Mr. McGovern is likely to revise his figures on the wealth holding of the American people. A short time ago he figured it out that a small percentage of the people own the nation's wealth. The next time he sits down with his slate and pencil the figures are likely to show that Uncle Ike owns it all.

Why Not Lengthen Term?
Fond du Lac Reporter: It is announced that the sheriffs of Wisconsin are, through their organization to get the constitution amended to repeal the clause which prohibits a sheriff from succeeding himself in office. The law should remain as it is. The office is the most important in the county and everything which might tempt a sheriff to disregard his sworn duty should be removed as far as possible. It often comes to a sheriff to perform services which are not popular at the time. He must enforce the law regardless of whom it hits. If he is a candidate for reelection he may be tempted to do the popular thing rather than the legal thing.

Bryan the Brave
Emporia (Kans.) Gazette: Remember the glories of Bryan the brave! This country for years he's been trying to save; he's talked by the year, and he's talking some more; he's talked when his throat was so frightfully sore, that his voice was whistled and needed a shave—remember the glories of Bryan the brave! Some heroes have fought for their country with swords, and some for their country have squandered their hoards, and some have written, and poets have sung, but Bryan has fought with his double-edged tongue; O long may that weapon in majesty wave—remember the glories of Bryan the brave! The western Chautauquians are strewn with his dead, the lyceum circuit, he's painted it red; the jawbone of Samson innocuous was as compared with the tongue that has never known pause; still the hero goes on while his enemies rave—remember the glories of Bryan the brave!

TO YOUNG MEN.
Jan Kubelt, the violinist, has insured his left hand for $250,000.

His left hand is worth that much to him, and more. Were he to lose that left hand or to suffer permanent disability by accident or disease there would be an end to his violin playing.

You see, the violinist gets his tones by the use of the fingers of his left hand. It is not his right hand which makes the flourishes with the bow that does the business. It is the trained fingers of the left hand which carry the violinist's intellect and feeling to the very tips. These sensitive fingers know to a hair's breadth just where to place themselves to give out the subtle shades of meaning and sentiment.

Kubelt's fingers are educated fingers. That is why they are worth $250,000 apiece.

Just so Theodore Thomas might have insured his ears for a large sum, the marvellously sensitive drums of those ears detecting instantly the slightest discord in his great orchestra.

And so Horne-Jones could well afford to insure his eyes. Without them he could not paint a "Vampyre." Those eyes take in subjective beauty and charm and make them objective. Those eyes are better educated and therefore more valuable eyes than ordinary eyes.

Young man—

The world is asking of every young man today not so much "What do you know?" as "WHAT CAN YOU DO?" Can you do some one thing better than your fellows—play a violin, conduct an orchestra, paint a picture, write a book, run a locomotive, make the plans for a house or build one, till a farm, manage a store, plead a cause, diagnose a case?

The world, like Diogenes of old, has its lantern out always looking for a MAN. It will pay his price if he is the right man. He can have what he wants if he can do the job.

Add value to yourself!

And there is only one way by which you can do that. It is the old way, the hard way of labor, strife, toil, concentration.

The men here mentioned, you say, were born to their tasks. Possibly. But one thing is certain—they made hands, eyes, ears, valuable by ceaseless, conscientious labors.

You cannot make yourself a valuable asset by the rubbing of an Aladdin's lamp.

L. C. WHITTET HAS BECOME A CANDIDATE

Edgerton Man Seeks to Represent His District in the Coming Session of the Assembly.

Edgerton, July 18.—L. C. Whittet has announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for the assembly from the first assembly district of Rock county.

Mr. Whittet's announcement comes in response to a large signed call which his friends throughout the district presented to him. It was almost unanimous and in view of this fact Mr. Whittet promised his name to be used. Hon. A. S. Baber of Evansville the present member of the assembly is at present in Scotland attending the sessions of the Congregational church conference. Before leaving he refused to allow his name to be used as a candidate for reelection.

Mr. Whittet is well known throughout the county and his election would be a most popular one. L. E. Gottle, also of Edgerton is said to be the other aspirant for the republican nomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hend attended the funeral of their cousin, at Jefferson today.

C. L. Clifton's warehouse closed today and the employees were treated to oranges and bananas.

Walter Meyers, a farmhand who claims to have relatives residing near Shirland, yelled like a wild Indian on the streets last night and howled and kicked in his cell after the police had escorted him to the lock-up. His actions seemed to be those of a demented person but the officers were inclined to believe today that he was on the verge of delirium tremens. He went to the county jail for five days in lieu of the payment of a fine of $2 and costs. Oly Olson of Leyden was another whose peculiar actions, in the light of subsequent developments, seem to have been caused mainly by liquor. He paid all but $1 of his fine and costs amounting to $3.10 and agreed to remit the balance. Albert Carroll went to the bastille for five days.

Owner of Fond du Lac Store Arrested on Arson Charge.

Fond du Lac, Wis., July 18.—On complaint of State Fire Marshal T. M. Partell, Isaac Rosenblatt, manager of and part owner of the Fair store, one of the largest dry goods stores in Fond du Lac, was arrested on the charge of arson Friday afternoon. It is alleged that he set fire to his store on the morning of July 13. When Rosenblatt was arraigned in court he waived examination and the case was adjourned until July 21. Bail was fixed at $5,000.

The loss on the stock in the Fair store is said to have been about $22,000, covered by insurance. It was said shortly after the fire that Rosenblatt said he was in the store about 15 minutes before the fire was discovered.

GOLDENBERG BROS. & CO., Importers,
New York, July 7, 1906.

Messrs. J. M. Bostwick & Sons, Janesville, Wis.

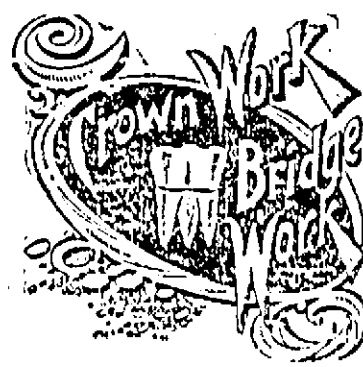

Gentlemen:—Our Mr. George C. Nock has just arrived home from his territory and finds that we have two jobs of embroideries in which you may be interested. The first consists of NAINSOOK INSERTIONS, about 1373 yds., goods from 1 to 3 inches wide, the original retail prices of which were 25c to $1.25, but in order to clean up our stock we have made the selling price — per yd. to close out this lot. This is a very nice collection of goods and would be a good purchase for anybody who could make use of the quantity."

The second lot did not interest us. WE TELEGRAPHED FOR THE LOT described above and received the insertions July 17th. PEOPLE WHO COME DOWN TOWN TONIGHT WILL GET FIRST PICK. To make short work of them we have put them into three lots—Lot 1 at 19c, Lot 2 at 22c, Lot 3 at 33c. These are excellent grades of work and cannot last long at these figures.

The designs consist of fine close work, some in more open eyelet effects, others in the heavier blind work imitation of elaborate hand embroidery, and some beautiful effects in the wide Irish embroidery.

First come, first served. Sale to continue through Monday.

DEMOCRATS NAME THEIR DELEGATES

TO THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION IN MILWAUKEE NEXT WEEK.

C. A. HOLME IS CHAIRMAN

Democrats of County Met and Held County Convention at Courthouse This Afternoon.

At the courthouse this afternoon the democratic county convention was held to elect the delegates to the democratic state convention to be held in Milwaukee next week and also to pick a county ticket.

Representatives from Beloit, Edgerton, Fulton, Evansville, and Clinton were present, as well as the Janesville delegation. Those from Beloit were J. E. Burns, Cornelius Buckley, J. B. Clarke, Chas. Oliver, Chas. Lathurs, Matthew Lathers and J. C. Rind.

The convention was called to order by J. C. Cunningham at 1:45 and C. A. Holme of Edgerton was elected chairman. P. J. Mount was then chosen secretary.

A motion was made and carried that those present should elect the delegates to represent the towns, villages and wards from which they came. It was then moved and seconded to proceed to the election of delegates.

CHIEF WAS SOAKED BY THE NEW NOZZLE

Chief Kline of the Fire Department got a Duckying Last Night During Test.

At the testing of the new nozzle last night the chief received a duckying by those that were running the pump turning on the water before the chief was ready. The chief pulled the nozzle away so that a man that was fastening one of the leads of hose would not get soaked and turned it over onto himself. Also in demonstration by washing the debris off a car that stood near the foundry, two panes of glass were broken.

JANESVILLE MEN BUILDING A DAM

HAYES BROS. & CO. CONSTRUCT-ING THE BELLE FOURCHE PROJECT.

GIANT UNDERTAKING BEGUN

Means Reclamation of Thousands of Acres of Arid Lands in South Dakota.

It is perhaps interesting to remember that Janesville firm of contractors are at work in South Dakota constructing the biggest project the United States government now has in the way of irrigation for arid western lands.

Not only is it the biggest project

MICHAEL HAYES

now in process of construction, but it is to be the largest, highest and biggest earth dam that the government engineers have ever conceived of.
When complete it will be a marvel of engineering skill and will supply a vast territory with a water supply the year round.

When the Hayes Brothers & Co., of this city took the contract for the completion of the Belle Fourche dam from the National Surety company of New York, they undertook a work at which one of the largest contracting firms in the west, Orman & Crook of Bellingham,

Hayes Bros, Denver, had been forced to relinquish. The Belle Fourche project is one of the government's plans for redeeming a portion of the arid lands of the Dakotas. The site of the dam is located near the city of Belle Fourche in Tuto county, South Dakota, the northwest county of the state on the state line.

When the work was begun six years

JOHN PETERS

ago Uncle Sam's treasury had decided to spend $3,500,000 on the work. The contract was divided into schedules
One, Two and Three. Wydoll & Phil-by, prominent contractors in construction work, were the first contractors to start. Then came the firm of Or-man & Crook of Colorado, and it is the completion of the work of these two firms that Hayes Bros. & Co. has begun.

By December 1, 1911. Their contract is made with the National Surety Co.

Some idea of the immensity of the proposition may be obtained when it is known that the dam when complete will be 115 feet high, 6,200 feet long, 378 feet thick at the base and 25 feet at the top. It will hold in check a lake the size of Lake Mendota at Madison with a depth of eight-ty feet.

The dam is being constructed along the boundary of a natural reservoir which extends back into the hills. Its base is 678 feet thick and it gradually slopes upwards until at the top it will be but 25. The inside, towards the water, is to be lined with concrete three 8 inches thick and when this layer is completed it will have covered thirteen acres of solid concrete.

The Hayes Bros. & Co. began their work April 20 and most complete it of New York, who were the sureties of Orman & Crook, who gave up the work owing to the hard times.

In order to handle this immense proposition the contractors have a substantial village at their works, known as Orman, named for the head of the previous contracting firm. This little colony furnishes quarters for the men employed on the works. Mr. Dennis Hayes in speaking of it said:

"Our workmen live in frame houses and eat at a big dining hall or if they are married in their own homes. Fifteen of the men on the works are married and have their families with them and we have fifteen children in the camp. This fall I have made arrangements for a school to be established for these boys.

"Our firm has three hundred and fifty men, head of horses and mules, locomotives, hoisting engines and other machinery necessary for the work at hand. The men have good houses, built of wood, and we have a big dining hall capable of accommodating 170 at one time.

"In all we have some two hundred and fifty workmen at present. We did have more to start with, but as we finished one portion of the works we let some of them go. The little village of Orman I think will be permanent. When the big dam is completed there will still be much to do and the country is a good one to live in."

This immense structure when finished will store up the waters of the Belle Fourche river and Owl creek and distribute it over two hundred and thirty thousand acres of adjacent land by means of lateral canals. The Belle Fourche river flows to the north of the reservoir proper and its waters will be turned into the big basin by means of a canal. Owl creek runs directly through the basin itself.

There is quite a Janesville colony at the works. John Peters, of the firm of Hayes Bros. & Co.; Harry Jackson, also a member of the firm and chief engineer of the company;
Joseph Hayes and Michael Hayes, Jr., engineers; Mike Murphy, formerly city treasurer of Janesville, has charge of the commissary department; William McNeil is a foreman; "Col." Wis-son is running a big traction engine, and others from here have been there,

some are still in the west and others have returned home.

The shape of the reservoir is that of an oval pinched in at the middle.
The high sides of the hills, where the dam's face is to be, is graded down to the top level of the dam when completed and this earth used in construction. Already the earthwork is twenty-five feet from the base and steadily rising. The fill at the bottom has been very extensive, but as it nears
the top it becomes less and less.

In order to facilitate the work traction engines, hoisting engines and even regular locomotives which haul trains loaded with dirt are used. In order to see that the work is properly done according to specifications government engineers are also stationed there.

It is the biggest engineering project that is now being accomplished in the west by the government and one of the most interesting from an engineering point of view due to the fact it is to be built of earth. The Hayes Bros.
& Co. have the contract merely for the construction of the dam itself although they may later bid on the building of the side canals which will carry the water to the surrounding country.
